HOPETOWN GIRLS' SCHOOL

VOLUME 1, ISSUE 17
15-OCT- 2013

GENERAL POLITICS: The workshop was conducted by Mr. Anup Nautiyal. He came to talk about Elections that will be happening in 2014. We as Indians never hesitate to complain and criticize the Government but have never watched our steps too. He also spoke to us about how we can make a huge difference by taking small steps towards the betterment of our country. He enlightened us about how social networking sites such as Facebook and twitter etc can be misused by the youth and how these sites play an important role in electing our Ministers as these are major tools of communication that the youth uses today. The statistics he gave us was very informative.

GENERAL POLITICS

VIRASAT: VIRASAT which means 'Heritage' in Hindi, is an annual event taking place in Dehradun in the month of October. Here, all the classical music and dance maestros and master craftsmen are invited to perform at the festival to enhance student interaction with such artistes and craftsmen. Three Hopetavians, Samriti Jain for Santoor, Ianthe Isle for vocal music and Sharvi Gupta for Kathak dance, participated in this event and did a commendable job. Samriti Jain even received a medal for her performance.

RAAHAT CONCERT

RAAHAT CONCERT: The Raahat concert is a fund raiser that took place on the 18th and 19th of October. The concert kicked off with a heart touching presentation by the 'Welham Girls' school' that showed the pitiable state of those who have been affected by the Uttarakhand Himalayan Tsunami. The show then proceeded with a performance by the choir of both the schools singing an original composition called 'Chalo Utho, Aage Badho' and the famous song by Michael Jackson 'The Lost Children'.

The much awaited fashion show, "Clothes over Bros" had the audience sitting at the edge of their seats. It was organised and coordinated by Amanda who was guided throughout by Mrs.Nagrath. Shubham and Muzammil too tirelessly helped her in organizing the walk. The entire dance troupe had the audience enthralled

DISTRICT ANNUAL ATHLETICS MEET:

DISTRICT ANNUAL ATHLETICS MEET-2013

SPECIAL ASSEMBLY- CHILDREN'S DAY: 13th November, 2013 witnessed the teachers of Hoptown conducting a special assembly for their students. It included drama, poetry and the hilarious 'HTGS News'. Chand ma'am wrote an amazing poem for all the students. The students who excelled in different fields such as music, art, dance, sports, etc. were given badges. Also badges for being punctual, taking initiative, and showing leadership qualities were given to students from each class. Recently Hoptown participated in the District Annual Athletics Meet and all the medals and trophies which the students won were awarded to them during the assembly.

SPECIAL ASSEMBLY- CHILDREN'S DAY:

Sports Meet and Award Ceremony: The sports day on 30th October 2013 was an amazing day for everyone – the participants as well as the audience. All the houses showcased perfectly organized and practiced march-past and highly competitive races. The day brought glory to emerald house declaring it as the athletics and the march-past trophies' winner. The sports meet was followed by the parents-teachers meet and the school art exhibition after which all parents enjoyed tea and went on to see the award ceremony. The award ceremony rewarded the toppers of the ISC and the ICSE Examination. Diamond house won the academics trophy. The day seemed too surreal for emerald house which won the cock house, conduct and sports trophies at the end of the day.
